4. ADMISSION INTO HALLS OF RESIDENCE

(i) Admission to a Hall of Residence is by application on the University e-portal.

(ii) Students who are unsuccessful in obtaining accommodation in a University Hall of Residence shall make their own arrangement for lodging outside the Campus.

(iii) Full academic session's fees must be paid before registration into rooms.

(iv) The right to occupy a room is not transferrable; anybody who violates this shall forfeit his accommodation and fees.

(v) While students are not obliged to live in Halls, those who elect to do so must conform with certain regulations; the adherence to which will enable every student have a pleasant stay in residence.

(vi) No student shall in any way seek to undermine the peace of mind of fellow students or the orderly administration of the halls of residence.

(viii) Concerning piracy (illegal occupancy of room) as the students prizes his/her rights and freedom of association, speech, and action of fellow students.

(a) All students who are legitimately allocated rooms in the Halls of Residence shall be made to sign an undertaking NOT to harbour any 'pirates' or squatters as a condition of tenancy.

(b) Any student who keeps a squatter shall automatically forfeit his/her room without refund of accommodation fees earlier paid. The 'landlord' and the 'pirate(s)' shall be ejected from any university halls of residence.

(c) Such students who are ejected from the Halls of Residence shall be blacklisted and shall forfeit and chances of being allocated any room on the University campus throughout their period of study in the University.

(d) If any already ejected 'landlord' or squatter is caught again 'pirating' with another student (new landlord) on the campus, the new squatter who is now the 'second offender' shall be suspended from the university for a semester, while new 'landlord', who us now the first offender forfeits his/her room allocation without any refund.

(e) Under no circumstance shall there be option if fine in a case that involves 'squatting'

5. ACCOMMODATION

(i) Undergraduate Student

a. Male Undergraduate students in all Faculties and Departments will be evenly distributed in the four halls for male i.e. Fajuyi and Awolowo, ETF, and Angola.

b. Female Undergraduate students will be accommodated in Moremi Alumni, Akintola and Mozambique Hall

(ii) Postgraduate Students

Murtala Muhammed Hall is exclusively for Postgraduate students.

N.B: Under no circumstances will accommodation be provided in the Hall for Graduate Assistants or any member of staff of the University on Study Leave where there is evidence that such a member of staff has already been allotted a house by the University or is being paid house allowance in lieu of accommodation.

Under no circumstances will accommodation be provided in the Hall for any one on Full – time appointment with any establishment unless he/she is on Study Leave.

A postgraduate study must not sell his accommodation or keep non-postgraduates, non-students or any other type of squatter in his room. Violation may lead to forfeiture of allocation. Accommodation in Murtala Muhammed Hall is on semester basis.

(iii) Clinical Students

Male clinical students will be accommodated in the two-bedded rooms in Fajuyi Hall and the Medical Students Hostel, while accommodation will be provided for their female counterparts in Moremi Hall and the female wing of the Clinical Hostel.

(iv) Order of Priority regarding offer of Accommodation to Undergraduate Students

(a) Freshmen

(b) Finalists (decided by matriculation year)

(c) Student Union Leaders

(d) Sport men and women recommended by the chairman, sports council

(e) Students suffering from physical deformities certified by Director of Medical services

(f) Foreign students

(g) Medical (clinical) students, and

(h) Other categories of students

(b) Postgraduate Students

(i) Students on first session of MA/M.Sc. Degree Programmes three-bedroom apartment where available

(ii) Students on second session of MA/M.Sc. Degree programmes single room apartment where available

(iii) Students on Ph.D. degree programmes single room apartment where available

6. HALL REGULATIONS

(i) Closing of University Gate

Hall gates shall normally be closed between 12.00 midnight and 6.00am daily including Saturdays and Sundays. All students are required to be in residence before the gates are shut. Any extension of these hours shall be at the discretion of the Warden from whom prior permission must be obtained.

(ii) Guests and Visitors

(a) Visitors are allowed in students room only between the hours of 4.00pm on week days (Monday to Friday) and between hours of 1.00am and 10.00pm (Saturdays, Sundays, Public Holidays)

(b) Visitors must not go directly to the students' rooms or to the common room but must first enquire at the Porters' Lodge where they must sign the Visitor's Book. Visitors must state their addresses in the book and must also sign the Visitor's book at the end of their visit for the purpose of this rule. Male students' visiting the Women's hall and women students visiting the men's hall will be regarded as Visitors

(c) A breach of any of these regulations shall carry severe disciplinary measures, which may include suspension from the Hall for a period, which may be up to one Semester, or from the University in grave circumstances.

(iii) Environmental Sanitation

(a) It is expected of each member of the Hall to maintain a high degree of environmental sanitation by ensuring that odds and ends are dropped into waste paper baskets and refuse bins supplied for the purpose along the corridors.

(b) Washing of clothes should not be done on the verandas or corridors.

(c) Lawns are not to be abraded by walking across them

(d) Ornamental plants are to be kept undisturbed

(e) The bathrooms and toilets are to be used with decency, and with consideration for the benefit of other users.

(iv) Electrical Appliances

(a) Installation of high wattage appliances (cookers, hot plates, washing machines, refrigerators, T.V. etc.) is prohibited in students' rooms.

(b) The use of low wattage appliances (fans, pressing irons, table lamps) is permitted but extreme care must be taken to ensure that these appliances are not connected to the LIGHT CIRCUIT. These appliances must be properly connected to the POWER CIRCUIT with pin fused and earthed plugs. Under no circumstances must any students tamper with or alter in any way, the electrical installations in any section of the Halls. A breach of any foregoing regulations shall be punishable by expulsion from the Hall of Residence.

v. Approved Hall Functions and Private Parties

(a) Meetings: A written permission issued by the Warden in reply to an application in writing must be obtained by any group wishing to hold a meeting/function in the common room of the hall concerned

(b) Parties: A written approval issues by the warden in reply to an application in writing must be obtained by an individual or a group wishing to hold a Party in the common room of the hall concerned.

N.B:

1. No parties of any description can be held in any room in the Hall. All parties are to be held in the common room.
2. Noisy parties involving dancing and drinking must not exceed 12.00 midnight
3. Parties held in defiance of (a) and (b) above shall, after proper investigation earn all culprits punishments which can be as severe as suspension from Halls of Residence for one semester or from the University in grave circumstance.

vi. Antisocial occurrence in the Halls of Residence a Riding of motorcycle in halls of residence is prohibited. Any violation of this rule shall carry a fine of Five Hundred Naira (#500.00) to be imposed by and payable to the Warden who is an accredited revenue officer of the University.

b Noise in Hall: Noise making through the use of record/cassette/disc players and other means in the room is also prohibited. Any violation of this rule shall carry a fine of Five Hundred Naira (#500.00). Any persistent violation of the rule would lead to expulsion of the offender from the Halls of Residence.

c. Cooking in the Halls of Residence: Under no circumstance shall students do any form of bedroom cooking in the Halls of Residence. Cooking along the corridors is also prohibited. Any student found cooking in his/her room shall after proper investigation be suspended from the Hall for a period which may be up to one semester. Where such a student persists in committing this offence after this period, he or she may be expelled from the University. Students are also not allowed to bring into the Halls of Residence any heavy electrical or cooking equipment/appliances.

d. Careless or willful destruction or damage to hall property is punishable by a fine to be imposed by the warden after seeking advice from maintenance officers

N.B:

1. Any persistent commission of the offenses listed under these regulations can lead to the expulsion of the offender from the Halls of Residence or from the University of need be.
2. Official receipt shall be issued by the warden to all offenders as fines are paid.

vii. Infringement of Rules

There is a provision for setting up Hall Disciplinary Courts under the chairmanship of Hall Masters/Mistresses.

Culpable misdemeanor and infringement of Hall

Regulations are punishable by employing any of the following sanctions. This may be verbal or written:

(a) Reprimand: A serious warning by the Master/Mistress or someone designated by him/her to do so,

(b) Restitution: Paying for what is damaged, lost, or otherwise destroyed, defaced or misused.

(c) Fine: Fines up to a maximum of (#2000.00) Two Thousands Naira (may be imposed)

(d) Expulsion from Hall of Residence: A student expelled from a hall of residence shall have the right of appeal to the Vice-Chancellor

(e) Serious Offenses which might earn the culprits suspension from the University or outright dismissal shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor who shall setup Disciplinary Tribunals to try the offenders.

(viii) Procedure for airing grievances seeking solutions to them

(a) Individual Students shall report grievances in writing to the Warden of his hail where such grievances affect his academic programme and activities. Where the Warden or Head of